

PHILLIPS de PURY & COMPANY'S LONDON PHOTOGRAPHS SALE WRAPS UP FALL PHOTOGRAPHS AUCTIONS WITH EXCELLENT RESULTS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

London – November 22 – Phillips de Pury & Company's Photographs sale today achieved excellent results with a sale total of £1,003,950.

The sale sold 74% by value and 68% by lot. Of the 186 lots offered, 127 sold.

This carefully curated sale featuring select images reflects Phillips de Pury & Company's remit to present the best works of the current generation alongside relevant works of the 20th century as well as incorporating artworks from across the globe to include The Middle East, China and Japan within the context of one sale. Names new to the auction market from the fashion and fine art realms such as Robin Rhode and Jeff Bark and were sold alongside key works from established photographers such as Richard Avedon and Robert Mapplethorpe.

Genny Janvrin, Head of Photographs, London:

"This result which compliments our New York sales results last month confirms that there is a strong appetite for era-defining images. We will continue to form our sales around the most provocative and important images from this wide-ranging medium."
